What we did in March...

Martha Sienkiewicz, E. Lary Grossman and Jean Pitman Turner pose with Stephen Hamilton, guest lecturer at the chapter workshop held on Saturday, March 13 at the historic Brick Church in Old Deerfield.

Performers in the Member's Recital held March 21 at St. Patrick's Church in Monson were Keith Richardson, Elizabeth Dawson, Griffin McMahon and Monica Czausz.

Mr. Hamilton played many new organ pieces that he has found useful for church services. Many of the members shown here returned to the Brick Church the following day to hear him play a recital on the Richards, Fowkes & Co. tracker organ. A reception was held at the Deerfield Academy.

Peter Beardsley introduced the performers to an audience of about 120 people, who heard the 14-rank Estey organ recently rebuilt by Southfield Organ Builders, Inc.

Chapter Events 2010

April 24 (Saturday) 7:00 PM, Peter Krasinski accompanies the silent movie “For Heaven’s Sake” at United Congregational Church of Holyoke. The 1926 film stars Harold Lloyd as a carefree millionaire who falls for a girl from the other side of the tracks. It is love at first sight, so he tries to impress her missionary father through a wild scheme full of sight gags and a wild chase scene. Peter Krasinski plays original accompaniment to the film on the historic E.M. Skinner organ.

June 7 (Monday) 6:30 PM, St. James Episcopal Church, Greenfield, Annual Banquet. The event actually begins at 5:30 p.m. with an open console at the 1959 three-manual, 27-rank Moeller organ. Social time is at 6:30 and the 7 p.m. dinner will include soup, salad, braised chicken tenderloin, penne pasta with vegetarian sauce and dessert. The evening will conclude with entertainment by Bob Sparkman, clarinetist, and Jerry Noble, pianist, playing jazz favorites. A registration form is included in this issue.
